

Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 06 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Widespread showers today, heavy in places.

Today:
Unsettled with scattered heavy showers, some longer spells of rain across the north at times. Rather warm in any brightness in the south. Northern Isles mainly dry, a few showers later. Brisk southeasterly winds across the north.

Tonight:
Heavy showers becoming less widespread through the evening, although a few lingering in places through the night. Misty low cloud developing in the northeast. Rather warm and humid.

Saturday:
Remaining unsettled with further showers, heavy at times across the south and west. Eastern areas may be somewhat drier but rather cloudy. Warm in any sunshine.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Little change. Further widespread showers, heavy in places, on Sunday and Monday. Becoming much drier by Tuesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.